

In this song, Annamaiah extols the greatness of God, saying that he protects us, fulfills our wishes and that he can be perceived only by real devotion.

God can be perceived only by devotion. Only God sustains and he only bestows salvation in this world.

1. God takes care of you as a child if you hold him. God is the greatest wealth. God is the broad daylight. He is in front of you, here.

2. God is the substance of the spoken word.
God fulfills everyone's wishes. God Sri Venkatapati is our strength. This God fills our lives with happiness.
