

Annamacharya describes child Krishna beautifully in this melodious song.

I think of pretty child Krishna always. My mind always thinks of his sacred feet.

1.The golden belt around his waist is studded with gems and jingling bells.He shines in his beautiful costume. He is a lovely toddler walking in a crooked way. He delightfully performs wonderful acts.

2.His playful hands are smeared with butter always. Brahma and other Devatas keep his auspicious feet in their minds.He is Hari,that dwells on the Holy Venkatachala. He is Gopala
,the Supreme Lord.
