

Aroma from boiling ghee is pleasant.

The milkmaids are singing melodiously.

1. They praise him as the lotus-eyed blue boy.
They are singing while milking cows and churning curds in pots.
2. The beautiful maids of Nanda village describe him as the bearer of Mandara mountain. They call him 'Madhava, Govinda'. There are cows around with their calves mooing sweetly.
3. They praise him as Venkatapati the embodiment of Vedas. They address him as the consort of Lakshmi and Padmanabha. Damsels kept their palms on cheeks and sang songs joyfully in Brundavana.