

Annamaiah sings this song in Vyragyam i.e. asceticism. He says that all activities, attachments are delusion, and warns that the consequences of sins will not leave us and that only faith in Venkatesa and struggle for Salvation are helpful.

Ordinary day to day life is a drama. Whether you see or not, salvation is the ultimate.

1. Birth and death are true. The life in between is drama.
This world is illusion and the ultimate is emancipation.

2. No one can be cut off from his sin or virtue.
All the time it is illusion. Sri Venkatesa rules from above. It is a long way for emancipation.
