

In this song Annamaiah describes various deeds and beauty of Krishna. He adds that he is skillful in dispelling worldly bonds.

He is the dear child of Nanda. He is delighted by the music of his flute. His laughter is charming. His teeth are like jasmine buds. He lifted the Govardhana Mountain.

1. The Sun and the Moon are his eyes. He is devoid of unpious aberrations. He showed his valor at different places in destroying the demons. He is skillful in alleviating the worldly bonds.

2. Lakshmi that stays on lotus is his consort. He is the best God. He keeps the indolent at a distance. He is the cause of blissful experience in every Gopika. His countenance is pleasant and he showers nectar of happiness. He is very auspicious.

3. He is the supreme lord and the bestower of boons. He is Vasudeva with Lakshmi by his side. He is Narasimha. He reclines on Adi Sesha. The ancient mountain is Sri Venkateswra's abode.
