

In this song Srungara rasa is prominent. Annamaiah picturises the union of the celestial couple Sri Venkatesa and Alamelu Manga.

Alamelu Manga whose words are as sweet as honey fell asleep after she joined her lord.

1. Curly locks were falling on her glistening face.

She slept till late in the morning as she spent the night in ecstasy. She won the heart of Venkatesa the lord of the universe.

2. Her garment was slipping, exposing her youthful bosom. She slept in a golden building. Her lotus like eyes were full of love because she met Venkatapati the creator of Manmadha.

3. That young lady was lying in ecstasy with a chain of pearls on her chest. She was delicate like flower and became wet in the embrace of Lord Venkatesa
