

In this song, Annamaiah describes Alamelu Manga as a beautiful bride, wearing rich clothes and ornaments.

When talambralu (holy yellow rice) were showered on bride Alamelu Manga's head by the bride groom, Venkatapati, she shyly turned her head aside and smiled.

1. The bride is known for her youthful grace. Her pearl-like building is famous. The bride sitting amidst the invited ladies She felt shy to utter her husband's name.

2. She wore rich anklets and surpassed her husband in attraction. The bride and bridegroom were sitting very close.

3. The bride decorated her hair with a long flower garland. She wore a variety of saris. She is the treasure in the embrace of Sri Venkatapati
