

In this great song, Annamayya preaches that all people are equal in this world irrespective of their wealth, status, caste, erudition, etc.

He is consciousness. He is super consciousness.

He is Jeevatma; he is Paramatma.

1. There is neither high nor low in this world.

Sri Hari is the inner self for all.

All the living beings are equal..

Sri Hari is the inner self of all.

2. Sleep of a king and his servant is the same.

A learned Brahmin and even a low caste person are buried in ground only.

3. The Sun shines on the mighty elephant and the street dog equally.

Only Sri Venkatesa's name protects pious people and sinners with equal compassion.
