

If you understand the true meaning of life, it is salvation. If you are ignorant of it, life is bondage.
The wise know that life is dream.

1. Where is perpetual happiness and there after where is sorrow for the philosopher who is desireless. Where is sin and where is piety for the yogi who is never attached to the fruits of his actions?

2. Where is fear of performing religious duties to the blessed devotee of God? A devotee who has Sri Venkatesa in his conscience is not enamored of the fruits of his Karmas in this or transcendental world.
