

In this song Annamaiah describes the splendor of Sri Venkatesa. He says that his greatness is unlimited, that he is the creator of the universe and that he rescued devatas from demons.

He is the God on Venkatadri that bestows boons.

He is the top most God appearing in all splendor.

1. The whole universe raises from each pore of his skin. He is magnificent god that shines brightly. All the fourteen lokas are within him. He is benevolent god that scaled lokas in three steps.

2. He wields the conch and the discus to annihilate demons. Lakshmi graces herself on his chest. Sri Venkatesa is always engrossed in protecting his devotees.
