

Neither you can tell nor keep silent about child Krishna's mysterious acts. His acts are new everyday. He is our fortune.

1. On one day he asks his play-mates to open their mouths widely but suddenly he throws dust on them. When elders went near him to admonish, he behaved sweetly embracing them.

2. Sometimes he tied itching creepers on other boys. When elders heard about it and went there . They only found precious ornaments instead of itching creepers.

3. Sometimes he forced his friends to eat lots of cheese. They even shed tears. When their mothers went to see, Venkatesa turned their tear drops into pearls.
