

Annamaiah, in this song, narrates Rama's story and says that Rama is the essence of knowledge and philosophy and that Venkatesa is the incarnation of Rama on Venkatadri.

Rama or Raghava is the wealth of mankind, born in the Sun dynasty. He became the husband of Sita the daughter of the goddess earth.

1.He is the supreme spirit born from payasam (porridge) taken after the great austerities performed for children by his father Dasaratha. He is the divine effulgence dawned to destroy demons and save Devatas.

2.He is the root and essence of the Vedas, philosophy and science. Rama incarnated himself as Venkatesa. He has neither beginning nor end .He is the most worshipped incarnation.
